LOLA MONTEZ'S IDEA OF ENGLISH GALLANTRY. LOVE FOUNDED ON MAKHON.—In a recent lec-ture on John Bull Lola remarked that in domestic and social life she found the English very admirable and praiseworthy. The love of money, however, is great. The Scotchman would love his bonnic lassic belove of money, however, is great. The Scotchman would love his bonnie lassie because she was bonnie. The Irishman would love his lass for her beauty and accomplishments. But John Bull would rather love her if she had gold in her purse and lands for her dower. Observation had shown her everywhere that money inspired affection. The gentry and nobility of England for the most part practiced the most refined and the most wicked arts of gallantry. To win the affections of a young and artless girl and leave her to misery was a matter of beasting at their clubs.

At some watering place the villain would begin his campaign. The poor girl would be flattered by what my lord would say. She has read in novels of condescension on the part of the high born to love such as herself, and she expected to become a great lady. In this way she became an easy victim. These things were the fashionable amusements of the wealthy in England. It fact it was a common pastime with them. She had seen in New York papers advertisements for wives, which she regarded as nets only to eatch some foolish girl. To see the reign of the mighty god Cupid in all his greatness and glory, they should visit a winter watering-place in England, where liver-diseased people, as yellow as their guineas, went to recruit their health. Here daughters, especially such as were somewhat passe, were bargained off to the old gents who had returned from the Indies with gold and disease. John Bull at home in England, and Brother Jonathan at home in New England, were the same beings, modified by local charges.

WM. H. FRY ON NEW YORK .- In a recent lecture on New York, Mr. Fry said, according to the Tribune:

to the Tribune:

The ratio of life was decreasing in duration in this city, because our government was in the hands of ignorance and incompetence. We allowed these men to control the machanic and fine arts of this country. If New York would be at the head of the world, she must shape the policy of the government so as to foster her manufactures. She must evolve her own ideas, as well as deal in the ideas of other people. We raised more gold than any other sountry in the world, but our gold went to France in search of her manufactures. Poverty here was increasing with terrible rato France in search of her manufactures. Poverty here was increasing with terrible rapidity. At the rate we were going on now, every five persons would soon have to support a pauper. Everything we sent abroad was bulky, and everything France sent to us was in a highly-concentrated form. We did not exchange on equal terms. The average duty on manufactured goods imported here was 19½ per cent., while the average duty of manufactured goods imported into Europe was 300 per cent. This was called free trade! An enlightened and reformed political economy would supply labor to the poer. At present, things were growing frightfully worse.

INDEPENDENT INDUSTRY OF NEW ENGLAND WOMPENDENT INDUSTRY OF NEW ENGLAND WOMEN.—The people of New England, and particularly those of Massachusetts, earn millions of dollars annually in various branches of industry which have been introduced in modern times. In one part of the Commonwealth, female labor is employed in binding shees; in another district, braiding straw is the leading pursuit; in a neighboring county, palm leaf is converted into hats and bonnets by women; and in the seaport villages clothing is made by the female residents for large dealers in Boston. The effect of this industry upon a large scale, has been the withdrawal of nearly the whole native force from the factories, and the substitution of foreigners in manufacturing villages, while in the matter of domestic service, the native women have almost wholly left the field; we apprehend that if the amount of the aggregate wealth of the women of Massachusetts could be ascertained, the sum would surprise every body. They form a large class of the depositors in Savings Banks, and there is hardly a corporation within their borders that has not females among its share owners. The independent industry of the New England women adds largely each year to the aggregate wealth of the community.

POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS WITH BELGIUM .- A postal contract has been executed between the Postmaster General and the minister of Belglum, establishing a regular exchange of cor-respondence in closed mails between the United States and Belgium, to be conveyed via England, once a week or oftener, and in coin-cidence as far as possible with the regular sailing of the Anglo-American steamers. The single rate for letters and samples of merchansingle rate for letters and samples of merchan-disc originating in the United States and des-tined for Belgium, or vice versa, is fixed at twenty-seven cents, of which pre-payment is optional in either country. There are also provisions for printed matter. The transmis-sion of closed mails under this convention is to commence on the 21st of January next.

NEW DEMAND FOR WHITE PINE,-Account NEW DEMAND FOR WHITE PINE.—Accounts from South America say that during the past six months the yellow pine of America which has been hitherto unknown in Brazil has been extensively introduced there and has become exceedingly popular. There is considerable demand in the construction of new railroads. Five cargoes had already arrived, and the prospects are favorable of building up a trade highly important to our commercial interests. Yellow pine is the only kind snited to that market, as there is in those latitudes an insect destructive to the white pine or any other soft woods.

LETTER OF GARIBALDI TO THE SCOTCH .-- A letter has just been received in Glasgow from General Garibaldi, of which the following is a translation: "I charge you to present to the generous sons of Scotland, in the name of Italy, the most warm sense of gratitude for their chivalrous demonstrations of sympathy to the sause of our country. I pray you to assure them that if an eminent grade has been offered me by the magnanimous Victor Em-manuel, I have thought better than to accept it."

TENEVECE'S REMUSERATION .- Mr. Tennyson is to receive £250 for a single idyl of about one hundred lines from the Messrs. Macmillan, for the January number of their new magazine. Bradbury & Evans paid him £100 for the "Grandmother's Apology," published in Ones & Week, some time ago, and one of the most atroctous pieces of verse we ever saw, even in country newspapers. Even we would not have been the author of the Apology for fifty dol-lars—it is too superlatively stupid.

Unriversally Predicament.—The Supreme Court of Indians has lately reversed a decree of divorce granted to Edmund McTwigg, on the ground that it had been obtained by france, and that Mr. McTwigg was a resident of New York and not of Indians, at the time when it was issued. The gentleman is left in an unpleasant predicament, as he had married another lady soon after having been freed from his first wife.

STRIKE OF BREE-DRIFFERS IN EUROFS.—
More than a thousand beer-drinkers of Mannheim have formed an association, pledging each other that they will pay but two kreutzers per schoppen for Mannheim beer; the brewers ask two and a half. In the meantime they pay two and a half for beer from other towns, Speyr furnishing them mainly.

A Bishor Among the Cannibals.—A correspondent of the Australian Mail, writing from Auckland, mentions that Dr. Selwyn, Bishop of New Zealand, has taken his departure in his little yacht, the Southern Cross, on a tour through a number of the Melanesian Islands. "It is, I believe, his lordship's intention to pay a visit to some new groups for the purpose of conveying to the natives "the glad tidings of the Gospel," and to endeavor to induce some of them to accept the advantages of an education in the College of St. John, so as to fit them to become in their turn instructors of their fellow-men. He is expected also to call at Norfolk Island. To record that the indefatigable exertions of the Bishop, and of his excellent and gifted coadjutor and chaplain, Rev. J. C. Patterson, in this extensive field of labor, are exceedingly encouraging, is a pleasing duty, for not only can these gentlemen now land on the shore of Islands, the natives of which until recently were hostile, but such advances have they made in the good opinion of the natives and their languages that they are now able to penetrate into their inland villages and hold intercourse with them." intercourse with them."

Naw Restrictions for Turkey have of late indulged themselves in wearing very thin vails and dresses, which allow their persons to be seen too much, has elicited an imperial edict, of which the following are the essential features: "Henceforth, all women, whoever they may be, on leaving their houses, must wear thick vails which completely cover their features, and be clad in dresses of cloth or other suitable material, without embroidery, trimmings or external ornaments of any kind. They must not show themselves out of doors simply in Stockings and slippers, but must They must not show themselves out of doors simply in stockings and slippers, but must wear half-boots in yellow morocco leather, or some other suitable and decent covering for the feet. When they go out to make purchases, they are strictly prohibited from entering shops, but must stop on the outside to be served, and must not remain longer than is absolutely pressure. When they are on the absolutely necessary. When they are on the public promenades, they must confine themselves to the part reserved for females. Any woman who shall be guilty of acts against the law, will be severely punished."

SHARSPERRIAN SUIT .- The Shakspears A SHARPERIAN SUIT.—The Shakspeare birth-place Committee has brought a suit to test the validity of the will of Mr. John Shakspeare, by which he left £2,500 to be devoted to establishing a museum at the house where his distinguished ancestor was born. He further charged his estate, known as Langley Priori, near Loughborough, with a rencharge of £30 per annum, to be paid half-yearly to the person who should be appointed to reside in the house as keeper, with directions to keep a wellum bound book to present with pen and ink to any visitor who may be desirous of a represent any earliers to a constant of the second desirous of expressing any sentiment in pross or verse in honor of the poet. It was objected to these bequests that they were void, as being within the mischiof of the Mortman acts, and further, that the words in the will to establish a "museum, or for other purposes," were too wide and general, and therefore that the bequest was void for uncertainty. It was also contended that the bequest of the rent-charge created a perpetuity in contravention of the act relating to perpetuity. The judge reserved his decision.

APPEARANCE OF PREING TO A STRANGER .-APPRARACS of PRING TO A STRANGE.—A recent traveler, speaking of the Chinese town of Peking, and the first impression a stranger receives on entering within the walls, says: "Once he has passed under the ponderous northern gate, measured the thickness of the wall, and is fairly within Peking, he will be entirely bewildered; all before is a confused and dusty mass of colors, men, mules, cabs, hundreds of camels, with the weary Mongols in their once red gowns, enthroned and fast in their once red gowns, enthroned and fast asleep on their high summit; an immensity of wide, perfectly straight, and endless streets; a living ocean of the most degraded of beggars, of cooks, barbers, blind men beating upon kettle-drums, orators delivering speeches; then, right and left, brilliant shops, cafes and hotels, surmounted by long poles of all colors, wooden walls, beautifully carved and gilt over: wooden walls, beautifully carved and gilt over; in fact, it is a scene so unique in the world that no dream could ever be so eccentric."

ANOTHER MORTARA CARE IN BELGIAN .-ANOTHER MORTAGE CARE IN BELGIAN.—A Mortara case has been differently dealt with by the Belgian tribunals. A. M. Moonens, living at Lendelele, near Courtral, was robbed of his daughter Catherina (aged ten) on the 4th of April this year, and as the father belongs to a body of Christians who separated from Bonns on the (se held) meanwhile leads to the contract of the from Rome on the (so held) uncanonical act of Pius VII., in destroying the old French Episcopacy to substitute a new one chosen by Napoleon at the Concordat of 1802, suspicion Napoleon at the Concerdat of 1802, suspicion arose as to foul play, and, in fact, the child was discovered at the convent of St. Geneis on the 31st of May. The father presecuted five devout ladies, agents in this fraud, whom the Courtrai Court and that of Appeal at Ghent sentenced each to fifteen days' prison and 100f. fine, of course restoring the girl to her

A Murcillus Physician, — A celebrated druggist, of Philadelphia, being on the point of death, sent for Dr. C., who was the family physician. C. having prescribed, was about to take his leave, when the druggist called him to his bedside, and said: "Doctor, I have something weighing heavily upon my mind; several years ago I was in the habit of adulterating my drugs, and I am now apprehensive lest I will not be pardoned." "Well," said the doctor, "God Almighty is merciful and may forgive you, but if I were he, I'd see you d.....d."

SINGULAR APPLICATION FOR A DIVORCE. Nancy Cakes, of Boston, after living with her husband twenty years, refused to remove with husband twenty years, refused to remove with him to Somerville, on the plea that all her relatives and friends resided in the modern Athens. To free himself from this useless incumbrance, Mr. Oakes brought a writ for divorce, on the ground of desertion, and Mrs. Oakes urged a countersuit, alleging extreme crueity. Nothing further than his desire that his wife should live with him was proved against the husband, and a decree was issued in his favor.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE. ADJOURNMENT OF THE VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE. This body has adjourned until the 2d of January. Among the resolutions submitted on Friday was one to inquire into the expediency of excluding from the Commonwealth all non-resident incendiary preachers, colporters and other corrupters of slaves, by requiring evidence of good character before they obtain license for pursuing their business.

Sons or Malta Robert.—The Lodge-room of the Sons of Malta in West Troy was broken into last week, and among the articles abstracted therefrom were 37 pitchforks, 8 grid-irons, 7 pistols, 39 muskets, 7 cavairy swords, one small bress cannon and a large Bible. A reward of $50 has been offered for the apprehension of the burglars, and $500 for the recovery of the property.

PLEASANT EVENT AT THE BESLIE OFERA.—An event rare in theatrical annals occurred a few days ago at Berlin. M. Ischlesche, of the opera of that city, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his debut. He is a bass singer, and has still a fine volce. The Prince Regent made him a pecuniary present. His fellow-performers presented him with a testimonial, and the bands of the two regiments of the guard played before his house.

A SAD STORY OF A SWISS WILD GIRL. A Sab Story of a Swiss Wild Girl.—A Swiss journal has a strange story of a wild girl lately found by a woodman of Saint Margarethem, in the Canton of Saint Gall. He discovered her lying wrotchedly clad and benumbed with cold, under some branches, and took her to his house. According to her story, she is the daughter of what are called Heimsthess parants. she is the daughter of what are called Heimathose parents—a sert of periahs who belong to no Canton, and although about eighteen years of age, neither she nor her parents had ever lived under a roof. Her father not long since killed her mether in a quarrel, upon which she left him, and had ever since wandered about the woods and mountains, living on wild fruits and vegetables pilfered from gardens. To explain why she had not been discovered sconer, she said that her custom had been to sleep during the day and prowl about at night. She knew of no name belonging to her parents or herself, and had not the slightest idea of religion.

THE OUVEING OF PARIS .- An inquiry was THE CUVRISHS OF PARIS.—An inquiry was lately opened to ascertain the number of working people, male and female, in Paris, in order to know what changes probably would take place in the population by the extension of the city. The number is found to be about 360,000. It has been hitherto generally believed that the majority were composed of masons, carpenters, and others connected with building operations, but that supposition is now found to be an error. The branch of business which occupies the greatest number of ness which occupies the greatest number of hands is that of tailors and dealers in readymade clothes; 100,000 workmen being engage in that branch of business.

The Way Uncle Sam is Plustered.—The Washington Republican says the cost of door caps and trusses for the windows of the Capitol extension, was $131,980, on contracts, which should have cost only $42,660. One stone-cutter, at $3 per day, was employed three hundred and twenty-five days cutting a door-cap. The same workman was employed one hundred and two days upon a window truss. The contracts were let out on these prices. But a single workmen afterward cut a door case in one hundred and sixty-five days, and a window truss in eighteen days.

We respectfully refer to the following certificates for evidence of the above:

For some months I have been using the Alligator Coal Cooking Store. Its superior cooking qualities, combined with its cleanliness, must eventually secure to the owners a large share af public patronage.

I have been using one of Me. ** Adams & Peckover's Alligator Cook Stoves fore, as months, which gives entire satisfaction in every respect, and I can cheerfully recommend it to those who are in want of a superior cook stove.

For the last year I have been using the Alligator Coal Cooking Stove, manufactured by Messrs. Adams & Peckover, which I consider a superior stove, and gives the nimest satisfaction. It is the only stove I have found that cooks perfectly with coal.

For some time past I have been using one of Messrs. Adams & Peckover's Alligator Coal Cooking Stoves, and can recommend them as being a superior stove, giving entire satisfaction in crevy respect.
